Terms and conditions of this service agreement and limited liability of Lighthouse Marina, Restaurant & Resort are as follows:

- A. Weight and size of boat and trailer and/or type of hitch may prevent Lighthouse Marina, Restaurant & Resort from launching / retrieving a boat, or from moving a trailer on the premises.
- B. Management has the right to refuse service to anyone under the following conditions:
 - Trailer or boat appears to be in an unsafe or inoperable condition that could lead to damage of equipment or injury to Lighthouse personnel.
 - Item has not been maintained and is not in full operational condition (ex: dead batteries, inoperable jacks or missing jacks).
 - Driver of boat appears to be intoxicated.
 - Shortage or workload of Lighthouse personnel mandates delay or refusal.
 - Boat is uninsured, or member fails to provide adequate proof of insurance.
- C. Lighthouse personnel will make every attempt possible to provide a safe launch and/or retrieval of every boat. Lighthouse Marina, Restaurant & Resort is not liable for accidents that occur during this process, or accidents that occur as a direct result of negligence on the part of the customer. By signing below the customer agrees to, and fully understands the terms of this contract and indicates that the boat is currently insured.
